CAREER EXPERIENCE

Sarah Thomas Moffat's 25+ year career started as a student PA, and has expanded across all departments and genres to land her successfully in the role of Director of Photography.

Her most recent endeavours have been into Virtual Production, where she has since honed expertise featured in British Cinematographer magazine. Sarah has also DPed workshops for the DGA, ASC, Final Pixel and SMPTE while filming VP projects internationally.

Receiving certification from the Schulich School of Business in Media Leadership. Her leadership and communication skills, combined with knowledge of the industry are highly regarded assets. Sarah's ability to strategically troubleshoot on the spot keeps projects moving at pace.

Ambassadorship is in her repertoire, having served as a Northern Explorer of Light for Canon, Sarah lectured in the corporate and public sectors on technology. Also sponsored by Manfrotto, Easyrig and Helly Hansen she appeared in many magazine promotions.

Originally creating and writing the Tech Column for Canadian Cinematographer magazine, along with the Wisdom Lecture Series, while volunteering on the Board of the CSC in previous years, her contributions have been many. Sarah also built her own content successfully creating her former education platform called TeckVlog.com, while designing and teaching workshops.

Sarah was a camera assistant to Derek Vanlint BSC, (DP of Alien), later in his commercial career. Here she learned to light from a Master, and carries these lessons with her today. Lighting all genres throughout her career, her work has been screened globally across film festivals and broadcast networks. From feature documentaries in Hotdocs, to feature fiction films on HULU, dramatic series on CBC, and viral video success online; Sarah's style is authentic. Her work ethic is communication, professionalism and compassion to see a project through.

Utilizing her CAD/UK dual citizenship, Sarah's career has spanned the globe. She also currently holds a valid US work visa, and is an associate member of the Canadian Society of Cinematographers; as well as an ASC Vision Mentee alumni.

To whom it may concern,

I recently had the pleasure of working with Sarah Thomas Moffat on a project of mine. I was impressed with her skills and knowledge, but more importantly with her aesthetic sensibilities. She captured some exceptional images when asked to go on her own on our location at

I think she would benefit from some expert representation, as would the representative or agent. I recommend her without hesitation.

Best,

To whom it may concern,

My name is Annie Bradley, I am a Producing Director, a member of the DGA, DGC and the current Chair of the Director's Guild of Canada-Ontario. I am writing this letter of support on behalf of Sarah Thomas Moffat. I met Sarah at a Film Fatales event in Toronto many years ago and we bonded over our shared passion for our crafts.

I had the opportunity to collaborate with Sarah on a feature length movie and can attest that she has the talent, the drive and the commitment required of an excellent cinematographer. The work we did far surpassed the budget we were working within and Sarah's contribution was a huge part of its success. Sarah is resilient, loyal, smart, and progressive and brings an air of hope and ingenuity and leads her team with compassion and inclusion.

As a woman in a leadership position in our industry, I am a fierce advocate for the creation of equal opportunities in key positions of film/tv production for women. I feel encouraged by the uptick in the numbers of women working above the line, but we still have work to do for cinematographers who are women. Sarah has the experience and leadership skills required and can hold her own in the narrative space of studio productions. She raises the bar on everything she does in career and life, and is an asset to all teams.

Warm regards,

To whom it may concern,

I have known Sarah Thomas Moffat for fifteen (15) years and have followed her impressive career the whole time. Sarah is a filmmaker. Her passion for, and knowledge of, the craft is clear. She is both a talented Cinematographer and camera operator. It is not uncommon for Sarah to both shoot and operate which is not any easy task, yet she does it flawlessly.

I had the great pleasure to have Sarah co-DP with me the short film, The Fork. That little film garnered much recognition including several cinematography awards to which is of immense credit to Sarah and her abilities. Since then Sarah has gone on to shoot a number of other films, all of which are taking the film circuit by storm.

Sarah is a devoted and passionate filmmaker. She always puts the best interests of the project first and brings a very large creative platter to the party. A consummate professional and a lover of people, Sarah is a wonderful collaborator to have onboard any and every project.

I encourage you to give Sarah high consideration for your project. Should you have any further questions please feel free to contact me directly.

To whom it may concern,

I have known Sarah Thomas Moffat for several years having met through various events in the world of cinematography at the CSC and of course, the ASC. Sarah is constantly contributing her skills in a variety of ways including volunteer work. We are also fellow Canadians.

I was fortunate to have Sarah's presence for the documentary I am producing with Dean Cundey on his journey as a film maker. I am nothing short of impressed by Sarah's energy, creative talent and strengths; too many to mention. Sarah's professionalism, confidence and respect with my work is above the normal bar.

Sarah is well traveled, vibrant about life and cinematography's artistry. Sarah can work legally in the U.K., U.S.A. and Canada. I am wondering if she is a young version of how great Dean was in his younger years with his attention to budgets, large or small, challenges with equipment and innovative ways to overcome hiccups on the road.

Whomever hires Sarah will benefit by her talent.

Best regards,

Tisha Cowmeadow
